

I am writing in reference to the Indiana do not call list. I beleive it should stay intact. I do not wish to have advertisers contacting me by phone, cell phone or e-mail. I believe in order for companies to advertise they must do so by traditional means such as news papers, radio, magazines or television. By calling me directly they are infringing on my personal time against my will. Thank you for your time.

Andrew S. Gaerte